

Sunshine Coast to Bunya Mountains

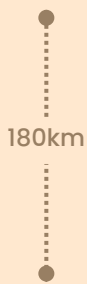

3 Days / 2 Nights

Day One

Sunshine Coast to Moffatdale

Approx. 180km / 2hrs

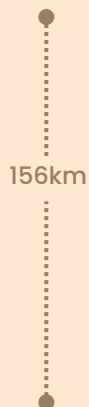

Take the M1 and head north from Maroochydore, onto State Route 49 via Gympie to Murgon which is a 174 km drive. Tour the Queensland Dairy & Heritage Museum and head to Moffatdale to visit the Moffatdale Ridge Winery or Clovelly Estate Winery for the afternoon. Stay overnight and enjoy wine tasting in the region.

Day Two

Moffatdale to the Bunya's

Approx. 156km / 2hrs

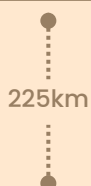

Take the A3 for 52km, stopping for morning tea in Kingaroy. Then continuing on the A3 head to Yarraman for award-winning gelato at Pink Flamingo before you arrive at the Bunya Mountains. Explore the walking trails of the Bunya's before you settle into your accommodation. Make time for a drink at Australia's highest whiskey bar — Shackleton's Whiskey Bar.

With a mix of moist rainforest, grasslands, open forests and woodlands, the Bunya Mountains is home to distinct plant and animal communities with more than 30 rare and threatened species.

Day Three

Bunya's to Sunshine Coast

Approx. 225km / 2hrs 50mins

Farewell the forest and start driving back home via Blackbutt on A17, stopping at the Blackbutt Bakery for one of their famous pies. Continue home onto State Route 85 via Woodford.

we all need a little country

Getting There

Sunshine Coast to Bunya Mountains

